The catalogs can be viewed at the Museum, Wednesday through Saturday, from 12:00 – 4:00 p.m. There are over 1500 images for viewing. Please contact the Museum at www.tiffinglass.org. or call 419-448-0200 to schedule an appointment. This endeavor was “supported in part” by an award from the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board, through funding from the National Historic Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC), National Archives and Records Administration.

Each catalog page was placed in its own archival sleeve, then into an archival folder, then into an archival box. The boxes are housed in a closet, on an interior wall within the Museum. The public may view the contents, with the aid of a docent from the Museum.

I expect increased researcher demand to view the catalog pages. A press release was sent to about 30 libraries, museums, and government officials, with a list of what is available to research.

Thank you so much for the U S Glass Co catalog pages. I don't handle Tiffin glass but certainly buy, Study, & sell U S Glass Co patterns. Our 30 year old web site, PatternGlass.com features only Early American Pattern Glass ca 1850-1910.

Best to you,
Elaine
